on the ground that the properties are now under the management of Govt. In Huz 150 of 1927, Govt have ordered that the Head of the Mutt had no right to pledge the immovable property for the loan & the plaintiff's claim if brought before a Civil Court ought to be contested (Huz K in the linked file).

The suit seems to have been wrongly instituted in the Sub Court, Bangalore. Since Govt is a defendant, it is only the District Court that has jurisdiction to try the suit.

The P.P. Bangalore has been requested to appear. If approved the collections in the linked file will be sent to the P.P. for preparing a draft W. statement.
